

SAMMIE IRA KISSNER

1934-2019

FORT WORTH: Sammie Ira Kissner, 84, a retired forklift driver, died Wednesday, January 16, 2019.

Sammie was born June 6, 1934 to Carl and Lavada (Camp) Kissner in Cordell, Oklahoma. He was a forklift driver for many years at General Motors.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his grandson, Brandon Cole Woolsey; his brothers: Eddie and Billy Kissner; and his sister, Margaret Brown.

Survivors include his daughters: Vicki Barry and husband, Aaron, of Zillah, Washington; Cindy Kissner of Fort Worth and Debbie Kissner Myers of Hillsboro; his grandchildren: Jeremy, Stacey, Veronica, Paul, Meagan, and Michelle; his thirteen great-grandchildren; his three great-great-grandchildren; his brother, Roger Kissner and wife, Martha, of Oklahoma; his sister, Patti Albert and husband, Chuck, of Ohio; several nieces, nephews, and his faithful companion, Harry, his Shitzu.

Graveside service was held at 1:00 p.m. Saturday, January 19, 2019 at Lawnview Cemetery in Cordell, Oklahoma.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
100 S. Ewing • Boyd, Tx.*