

GLEN CAROL BAKER

1924-2019

BRIDGEPORT: Glen Carol Baker, 94, a commercial fisherman, died Monday, January 21, 2019, in Archer City.

Glen was born on June 30, 1924, to Urban and Eula (Teague) Baker in Nocona, Texas. He attended Robert Lee Paschal High School in Fort Worth. Glen proudly served his country in the United States Merchant Marines and graduated from the US Merchant Marine Academy in Long Island, New York on Friday, May 5, 1944. He served on various ships during WWII. Glen met and married Elizabeth (Libby) Brush from New York.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and his sister, Betty Ruth Baker.

Survivors include his daughter, Penny Baker Todd of Sierra Madre, California; his son, Galen Baker of Sacramento, California; his four grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; numerous cousins, and a host of friends.

Graveside service was held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, January 24, 2019, at Long Branch Cemetery in No-cona, Texas.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Tx*